Performance Summary: Disciplined Growth Overcomes Market Pressures

"We are very pleased with our second quarter performance, which reflects our steadfast focus on executing our strategies," said Steve Steinour, chairman, president and CEO. "We have been able to grow both total revenue and net interest income year over year. Net interest income was particularly noteworthy, as average loan growth of 9 percent allowed us to overcome continued pressure on the net interest margin from the low, flat yield curve. We also returned 97% of earnings to common shareholders, including $111 million of stock buybacks during the quarter, which demonstrates our belief in the future prospects of the company and our commitment to return capital to our shareholders."

"Average loans increased $3.7 billion from the second quarter of 2013, driven by growth in commercial and auto lending, reflecting heightened consumer and business confidence in the economy," said Steinour. "During the quarter, we announced and received approval from the OCC for the purchase of an additional 24 branches in Michigan, which is targeted to close in September. Also during the second quarter, retail banking customers surveyed by J.D. Power rated Huntington the "Highest Customer Satisfaction with Retail Banking in the North Central Region.[†]" Additionally, Huntington was the number one SBA lender in the country for the first nine months of the SBA's fiscal year, even though we only lend in our six-state footprint. We also gave customers more convenience and ability to manage their money during the quarter with the rollout of the Quick Balance feature to our mobile banking—only the second bank in the country to offer this feature."

Fully-taxable equivalent (FTE) net interest income increased $35 million, or 8%, from the 2013 second quarter. This reflected the benefit from the $5.9 billion, or 12%, increase in average earnings assets, including a $3.7 billion, or 9%, increase in average loans and leases and a $2.6 billion, or 28%, increase in average securities. This earning asset growth was partially offset by the 10 basis point decrease in the FTE net interest margin (NIM) to 3.28%. The NIM contraction reflected a 15 basis point decrease related to the mix and yield of earning assets partially offset by the 5 basis point reduction in funding costs. During the 2014 second quarter, net interest income and the NIM benefitted by $5 million and 4 basis points, respectively, from the unexpected pay-off of an acquired commercial real estate loan.

Average loans and leases increased $3.7 billion, or 9%, from the prior year, driven by:

- $2.1 billion, or 39%, increase in average Automobile loans, as originations remained strong and we continued to portfolio all of the production.
- $1.2 billion, or 7%, increase in average Commercial and Industrial (C&I) loans and leases, reflecting growth in the specialty lending verticals, automobile dealer floorplan lending, and business banking.
- $0.4 billion, or 7%, increase in average residential mortgage loans as a result of increased customer demand for Adjustable Rate Mortgages (ARMs).

Average total core deposits increased $1.9 billion, or 4%, from the year-ago quarter, including a $0.6 billion, or 5%, increase in noninterest bearing deposits. Average interest-bearing liabilities increased $5.0 billion, or 14%, from the 2013 second quarter, reflecting:

- $3.6 billion, or 130%, increase in short- and long-term borrowings, which were used to efficiently finance balance sheet growth while continuing to manage the overall cost of funds. Included in the increase are $2.1 billion of bank-level debt and $0.4 billion of parent-level debt issued over the past year.
- $2.6 billion, or 17%, increase in money market deposits, reflecting the strategic focus on customer growth and increased share-of-wallet among both consumer and commercial customers.

Partially offset by:

 $1.3 billion, or 28%, decrease in average core certificates of deposit due to the strategic focus on changing the funding sources to no-cost demand deposits and lower cost money market deposits.

Noninterest income decreased $2 million, or less than 1%, from the year-ago quarter, primarily reflecting:

• $11 million, or 33%, decrease in mortgage banking income, reflecting a 49% reduction in origination and secondary marketing revenue as originations decreased 23% and gain-on-sale margins compressed.

Partially offset by:

- $7 million, or 25%, increase in other income primarily related to commercial loan fees and credit card fees, as our new credit card products were launched last year.
- $5 million, or 7%, increase in service charges on deposit accounts reflecting 8% consumer household and 1% commercial relationship growth and changing customer usage patterns.

Compared to the 2014 first quarter, noninterest income increased $2 million, or less than 1%. This increase reflected typical seasonality within service charges on deposit accounts, which increased $8 million, or 12%, and a $3 million, or 12%, increase in electronic banking. These were mostly offset by a $16 million, or 97%, decrease in securities gains.

Noninterest expense increased $13 million, or 3%, from the year-ago quarter, reflecting:

- $9 million, or 92%, increase in professional services, $5 million of which is one-time consulting expense related to strategic planning.
- $4 million, or 9%, increase in outside data processing and other services, reflecting higher debit and credit card processing costs and other technology expense.
- $4 million, or 15%, increase in equipment expense, reflecting technology investments and the near-complete rollout of enhanced ATMs.

Partially offset by:

• $3 million, or 1%, decrease in personnel costs, reflecting the curtailment of the pension plan at the end of 2013 partially offset by annual compensation increases.

Noninterest expense decreased $1 million, or less than 1%, from the 2014 first quarter. When adjusting for the $22 million of Significant Items in the 2014 first quarter, noninterest expense increased $21 million. Personnel costs increased $11 million, or 4%, primarily reflecting the implementation of compensation and benefits increases. Marketing increased $4 million, or 39%, due to the seasonal increase in campaigns and promotions. Net occupancy expense decreased $5 million, or 14%, primarily related to the prior quarter's snow removal expenses, as well as $2 million of one-time expenses related to the Camco acquisition and conversion. Other expense decreased $18 million, or 35%, as the 2014 first quarter included the $9 million addition to litigation reserves and a $3 million goodwill impairment.

Nonaccrual loans and leases (NALs) decreased $39 million, or 11%, compared to a year ago to $325 million, or 0.71% of total loans and leases. Nonperforming assets (NPAs) decreased $35 million, or 9%, to $362 million, or 0.79% of total loans and leases, OREO, and other NPAs.

The provision for credit losses increased $5 million, or 16%, compared to the year-ago quarter reflecting the substantial loan growth during the current quarter tempered by the slight improvement in asset quality measures. Net charge-offs (NCOs) decreased $6 million, or 18%, to $29 million consistent with our expectations. The consumer portfolios drove the bulk of the quarterly decline, continuing the positive trend exhibited over the past three quarters. NCOs equated to an annualized 0.25% of average loans and leases in the current quarter compared to 0.34% in the year-ago quarter.

The period-end allowance for credit losses (ACL) as a percentage of total loans and leases decreased to 1.50% from 1.86% a year ago, while the ACL as a percentage of periodend total NALs decreased to 213% from 214%. The decrease in the ACL as a percent of total loans is consistent with the improved credit quality metrics.

See Page 15 of Quarterly Financial Supplement for additional detail.

The tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio at June 30, 2014, was 8.38%, down 38 basis points from a year ago. Our Tier 1 common risk-based capital ratio was 10.26%, down from 10.71% a year ago. The regulatory Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio at June 30, 2014, was 11.56%, down from 12.24% a year ago.

The decreases in the capital ratios were due to balance sheet growth and share repurchases that were partially offset by retained earnings and the stock issued in the Camco acquisition. Specifically, all capital ratios were impacted by the repurchase of 28.7 million common shares over the last four quarters, 12.1 million of which were repurchased during the 2014 second quarter. The decrease in the regulatory Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio also reflected the redemption of $50 million of qualifying preferred securities on December 31, 2013. These declines were offset partially by the increase in retained earnings as well as the issuance of 8.7 million common shares in the Camco acquisition.

Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes in the 2014 second quarter was $57 million and $55 million in the 2013 second quarter. The effective tax rates for the 2014 second quarter and 2013 second quarter were 25.9% and 26.8%, respectively. At June 30, 2014, we had a net federal deferred tax asset of $82 million and a net state deferred tax asset of $47 million. As of June 30, 2014 and June 30, 2013, there was no disallowed deferred tax asset for regulatory capital purposes.

Expectations

"We are optimistic about the continued growth in our local economies and the growing benefit from previous investments, which are driving our robust pipelines," said Steinour. "Nevertheless, the rate environment and competitive pressures will continue to be challenging. We remain committed to achieving positive operating leverage for the 2014 full year and will continue to manage the franchise proactively in concert with our outlook."

Net interest income is expected to increase modestly. We anticipate an increase in earning assets as total loans moderately grow and investment securities increase modestly. However, those benefits to net interest income are expected to be partially offset by continued downward pressure on NIM. We continue to maintain a disciplined approach to loan and deposit pricing; however, asset yields remain under pressure, and the opportunity to reduce funding costs further is diminishing.

Noninterest income, excluding the impact of any net MSR activity, is expected to remain near the current quarter's level. In July, we will implement the previously announced change in our consumer service charges on deposits that is expected to have an approximate quarterly negative impact of $6 million. We expect that continued organic consumer household and business relationship growth coupled with the completion of the Michigan branch acquisitions will help offset this reduction.

Noninterest expense, excluding one-time items, is expected to remain near the current quarter's reported level. We will continue to look for ways to reduce expenses, while not impacting our previously announced growth strategies and our high level of customer service.

Asset quality metrics are expected to trend favorably, although moderate quarterly volatility also is expected given the absolute low level of problem assets and credit costs. NPAs are expected to show continued improvement. We anticipate NCOs will remain within or below our long-term normalized range of 35 to 55 basis points.

The effective tax rate for the remainder of 2014 is expected to be in the range of 25% to 28%, primarily reflecting the impacts of tax-exempt income, tax-advantaged investments, general business credits, and the change in accounting for investments in qualified affordable housing projects.

While there is no assurance that any list of risks and uncertainties or risk factors is complete, below are certain factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained or implied in the forward-looking statements: (1) worsening of credit quality performance due to a number of factors such as the underlying value of collateral that could prove less valuable than otherwise assumed and assumed cash flows may be worse than expected; (2) changes in general economic, political, or industry conditions; uncertainty in U.S. fiscal and monetary policy, including the interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve Board; volatility and disruptions in global capital and credit markets; (3) movements in interest rates; (4) competitive pressures on product pricing and services; (5) success, impact, and timing of our business strategies, including market acceptance of any new products or services implementing our "Fair Play" banking philosophy; (6) changes in accounting policies and principles and the accuracy of our assumptions and estimates used to prepare our financial statements; (7) extended disruption of vital infrastructure; (8) the final outcome of significant litigation; (9) the nature, extent, timing, and results of governmental actions, examinations, reviews, reforms, regulations, and interpretations, including those related to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the Basel III regulatory capital reforms, as well as those involving the OCC, Federal Reserve, FDIC, and CFPB; and (10) the outcome of judicial and regulatory decisions regarding practices in the residential mortgage industry, including among other things the processes followed for foreclosing residential mortgages. Additional factors that could cause results to differ materially from those described above can be found in Huntington's 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K, and documents subsequently filed by Huntington with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All forwardlooking statements included in this document are based on information available at the time of the release. Huntington assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement.

Basis of Presentation

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This document may contain GAAP financial measures and non-GAAP financial measures where management believes it to be helpful in understanding Huntington's results of operations or financial position. Where non-GAAP financial measures are used, the comparable GAAP financial measure, as well as the reconciliation to the comparable GAAP financial measure, can be found in this second quarter earnings release, conference call slides, or the Form 8-K related to this document, all of which can be found on Huntington's website at www.huntington-ir.com.

Significant Items

From time to time, revenue, expenses, or taxes are impacted by items judged by Management to be outside of ordinary banking activities and/or by items that, while they may be associated with ordinary banking activities, are so unusually large that their outsized impact is believed by Management at that time to be infrequent or short term in nature. We refer to such items as "Significant Items". Most often, these Significant Items result from factors originating outside the Company – e.g., regulatory actions/assessments, windfall gains, changes in accounting principles, one-time tax assessments/refunds, litigation actions, etc. In other cases they may result from Management decisions associated with significant corporate actions out of the ordinary course of business – e.g., merger/restructuring charges, recapitalization actions, goodwill impairment, etc.

Even though certain revenue and expense items are naturally subject to more volatility than others due to changes in market and economic environment conditions, as a general rule volatility alone does not define a Significant Item. For example, changes in the provision for credit losses, gains/losses from investment activities, asset valuation write-downs, etc., reflect ordinary banking activities and are, therefore, typically excluded from consideration as a Significant Item.

Management believes the disclosure of "Significant Items", when appropriate, aids analysts/investors in better understanding corporate performance and trends so that they can ascertain which of such items, if any, they may wish to include/exclude from their analysis of the Company's performance - i.e., within the context of determining how that performance differed from their expectations, as well as how, if at all, to adjust their estimates of future performance accordingly. To this end, Management has adopted a practice of listing "Significant Items" in its external disclosure documents (e.g., earnings press releases, quarterly performance discussions, investor presentations, Forms 10-Q and 10-K).

"Significant Items" for any particular period are not intended to be a complete list of items that may materially impact current or future period performance. A number of items could materially impact these periods, including those described in Huntington's 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K and other factors described from time to time in Huntington's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Annualized Data

Certain returns, yields, performance ratios, or quarterly growth rates are presented on an "annualized" basis. This is done for analytical and decision-making purposes to better discern underlying performance trends when compared to full-year or year-over-year amounts. For example, loan and deposit growth rates, as well as net charge-off percentages, are most often expressed in terms of an annual rate like 8%. As such, a 2% growth rate for a quarter would represent an annualized 8% growth rate.

Fully-Taxable Equivalent Interest Income and Net Interest Margin

[Type text]

Income from tax-exempt earning assets is increased by an amount equivalent to the taxes that would have been paid if this income had been taxable at statutory rates. This adjustment puts all earning assets, most notably tax-exempt municipal securities and certain lease assets, on a common basis that facilitates comparison of results to results of competitors.

Earnings per Share Equivalent Data

Significant income or expense items may be expressed on a per common share basis. This is done for analytical and decision-making purposes to better discern underlying trends in total corporate earnings per share performance excluding the impact of such items. Investors may also find this information helpful in their evaluation of the Company's financial performance against published earnings per share mean estimate amounts, which typically exclude the impact of Significant Items. Earnings per share equivalents are usually calculated by applying a 35% effective tax rate to a pretax amount to derive an after-tax amount, which is divided by the average shares outstanding during the respective reporting period. Occasionally, when the item involves special tax treatment, the after-tax amount is disclosed separately, with this then being the amount used to calculate the earnings per share equivalent.

Rounding

Please note that columns of data in this document may not add due to rounding.

Notes:

The preparation of financial statement data in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Certain prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current period's presentation.

Non-Regulatory Capital Ratios

In addition to capital ratios defined by banking regulators, the Company considers various other measures when evaluating capital utilization and adequacy, including:

- Tangible common equity to tangible assets,
- Tier 1 common equity to risk-weighted assets using Basel I and Basel III definitions, and
- Tangible common equity to risk-weighted assets using Basel I definition.

These non-regulatory capital ratios are viewed by management as useful additional methods of reflecting the level of capital available to withstand unexpected market conditions. Additionally, presentation of these ratios allows readers to compare the Company's capitalization to other financial services companies. These ratios differ from capital ratios defined by banking regulators principally in that the numerator excludes preferred securities, the nature and extent of which varies among different financial services companies. These ratios are not defined in GAAP or federal banking regulations. As a result, these non-regulatory capital ratios disclosed by the Company may be considered non-GAAP financial measures.

Because there are no standardized definitions for these non-regulatory capital ratios, the Company's calculation methods may differ from those used by other financial services companies. Also, there may be limits in the usefulness of these measures to investors. As a result, the Company encourages readers to consider the consolidated financial statements and other financial information contained in the related press release in their entirety, and not to rely on any single financial measure. Basel III Tier 1 common capital ratio estimates are based on management's current interpretation, expectations, and understanding of the final U.S. Basel III rules adopted by the Federal Reserve Board and released on July 2, 2013.

Key Statistics Footnotes

- (1) Comparisons for all presented periods are impacted by a number of factors. Refer to Significant Items.
- (2) Net income excluding expense for amortization of intangibles for the period divided by average tangible common shareholders' equity. Average tangible common shareholders' equity equals average total common shareholders' equity less average intangible assets and goodwill. Expense for amortization of intangibles and average intangible assets are net of deferred tax liability, and calculated assuming a 35% tax rate.
- (3) On a fully-taxable equivalent (FTE) basis assuming a 35% tax rate.
- (4) Noninterest expense less amortization of intangibles and goodwill impairment divided by the sum of FTE net interest income and noninterest income excluding securities gains (losses).
- (5) Includes noninterest-bearing and interest-bearing demand deposits, money market deposits, savings and other domestic deposits, and core certificates of deposit.
- (6) NPAs include other real estate owned.
- ⁽⁷⁾ June 30, 2014, figures are estimated.
- (8) Tangible common equity (total common equity less goodwill and other intangible assets) divided by tangible assets (total assets less goodwill and other intangible assets). Other intangible assets are net of deferred tax liability, and calculated assuming a 35% tax rate.
