HUNTINGTON NAMES MARY BETH SULLIVAN PRESIDENT OF HUNTINGTON INSURANCE, INC.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 8, 2016 – Huntington today appointed Mary Beth Sullivan president of Huntington Insurance, Inc. Reporting to Director of Commercial Banking Rick Remiker, Sullivan will lead an organization of 400 colleagues delivering commercial and personal risk management solutions from more than 40 leading insurance companies, in addition to overseeing Huntington’s own commercial and residential title insurance company, HBI Title, Inc.

“There’s perhaps no better way to look out for customers than through a comprehensive approach to risk and financial management that’s inclusive of insurance,” said Remiker. “Mary Beth has played an integral role in shaping the growth and expansion of Huntington Insurance in recent years. She is ideally suited to lead the organization in its capacity as a formidable asset delivering distinctive insight that helps customers protect against loss and preserve their financial strength.”

Sullivan joined Huntington in 2005 and most recently served as managing director of consumer and specialized insurance. She is an insurance industry veteran with 24 years of experience. She began her insurance career at Buffalo-based Merchants Mutual Insurance where she led product development and underwriting teams before joining First Union Insurance (later Wachovia Insurance) where she gained valuable experience with mergers and acquisitions, including successfully integrating insurance solutions into the commercial bank sales offering.

Active in the community, Sullivan participates in several organizations including United Way, serving as a member of the Women’s Leadership Council, and St. Brigid of Kildare. She is a graduate of Canisius College and resides in Dublin, Ohio.
