HUNTINGTON BANK 2017 ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT BENCHMARKS CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY PERFORMANCE

Purpose-driven culture drives increase in diversity, investments in colleagues, strengthening of communities and reduction in carbon footprint

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (NASDAQ:HBAN) has published its Environmental, Social and Governance \(ESG\) Report, which highlights Huntington’s commitment to colleagues, customers and communities and in delivering sustainable, long-term value to investors.

Huntington’s ESG Report compiles social responsibility efforts in which the company has long been engaged, further increasing transparency for independent assessment and publicly updating a performance benchmark

“At Huntington, we are purpose-driven to make people’s lives better, help businesses thrive and strengthen the communities we serve,” said Steve Steinour, chairman, president and CEO. “We are proud of our colleagues’ ongoing efforts to build healthy, sustainable neighborhoods with economic opportunity for all.”

The 2017 report details Huntington’s environmental impact, its socially-responsible efforts with colleagues, customers and communities and its governance standards.

Highlights include:

- Investing in Colleagues: Throughout 2017, Huntington made additional investments in colleagues including raising the minimum starting salary to $15.00-$17.60 per hour, increasing 401(k) plan matching contributions and implementing a new caregiver leave program. Huntington also revised and expanded its maternity leave policy, expanded its scholarship program and increased military benefits and support throughout a deployment cycle.

- Commitment to Inclusion: Huntington increased diversity in upper management from 40.8% in 2016 to 42% in 2017, with 67.5% diversity across the total workforce. In 2017, Huntington increased its supplier diversity spend to 16.9%, exceeding the 11% industry average. Huntington further committed to inclusion by ensuring gender neutral bathrooms in all major employment centers. In 2017, Huntington received the Leading Disability Employer Seal™, earned a perfect score of 100% on the 2017 Disability Equality Index and was recognized by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation as one of the Best Places to Work for LGBTQ Equality.
- Strengthening Neighborhoods: In 2017, Huntington exceeded year one expectations with 31% progress-to-goal for its $16.1 billion five-year community plan. Huntington invested in communities with $863 million in community development loans, $326 million in community investments and more than 4,600 affordable housing units. Huntington also remained the number one SBA lender in its eight-state footprint since 2009, with 4,065 loans in 2017. Through the Huntington Home Savers Program, 2,145 customers received mortgage assistance in the past year and more than 25,000 customers have averted foreclosure and stayed in their homes since the program began in 2008. Huntington began a new program in 2017, which waived closing costs in VA loans.
- Deepening Sustainable Practices: Huntington converted all interior and exterior signage across all markets to energy efficient lighting and generated 587,100 kWh of wind and solar electricity. Huntington increased ENERGY STAR® scores by 5% surpassing its goal of 4% annual increase for five years. Huntington recycled 1,392,305 pounds of paper and 1,713 electronics. Huntington also opened the Huntington Gateway Center, a 210,000 square-foot sustainability facility featuring Ohio’s first Spotlight solar trees, daylight harvesting technology and electric vehicle charging stations. In 2017, Huntington put forward a five-year commitment to further reduce its carbon footprint, enhance its sustainability supply chain and increase colleague involvement by 2022.
